Chapter 1 by ChemicallyInsane

Hunter stepped on the stage of the voice, on the verge of a panic attack. He had sang on stage for a vast amount of years, but for some reason, facing Blake Shelton, Adam Levine, Usher and Shakira just terrified him.

The song started and he smiled. His fingers danced along the strings of his guitar. He didn't need a pick, his mind was built for this. His fear melted away quickly.

"Woahhh Ohhh."

"My bags were from the day I was born.... Knew there was something I was living for..... I found my place in a runaway car and I never looked back, never looked back." -Guitar riff- Blake Shelton and Usher turned around. He smiled, his pearly white teeth making girls scream.

"I never was much for falling in line, I have a long time fire in this heart of mine, I may look crazy in mama's eyes but I don't mind." He slung his guitar around and back, bringing it up just in time to start playing again.

-He sings the rest of the song. All
